JESSICA McQUAY DEBUTS YA URBAN FANTASY NOVEL, BLACK MOON

2/19/2015—BLACK MOON is a YA Urban Fantasy debut from author Jessica McQuay. Scheduled to release Fall 2016 from REUTS Publications, Black Moon will appeal to fans of Richelle Mead's Vampire Academy, NBC's Grimm, and MTV's Teen Wolf. Suited for a 14-25-year-old audience, McQuay mixes coming of age struggles with well-known creatures of legend to deliver the perfect paranormal mash-up.

"BLACK MOON creates a refreshing, new world where fairytales live alongside nightmares, and secrets are the glue that binds them together. Struggling with revelations about her family origins, Paige Taylor must differentiate lies from truths, even when deceit runs as thick as blood. Using captivating prose, McQuay successfully weaves together three races, two worlds, and one fascinating adventure."
