DANIELLE KOSTE SIGNS YA AND NA NOVELS, WHAT THE FLOWER SAYS OF DEATH, AND PULSE

March 10, 2016—What the Flower Says of Death is a YA Paranormal Romance, and Pulse is a NA Paranormal Sci-Fi from debut author Danielle Koste. Scheduled to release in 2017 from REUTS Publications, What the Flower Says of Death will appeal to readers of Janet Fitch's White Oleander, driven by self-reflection and inner growth with a paranormal romance twist. Pulse will appeal to fans of the Underworld movie series with an innocent yet dangerous curiosity for the unknown, as presented in John Ajvide Lindqvist's Let the Right One In.

"PULSE: Rowan Platts, a virologist intern, gets in over her head when she's invited to work on a secret government project. The subject of study: a boy with a virus that gives him vampire-like symptoms. As more information is revealed about the virus, Rowan is forced to make choices that ultimately define her morals and put her dream career, and life, in jeopardy."

WHAT THE FLOWER SAYS OF DEATH: After a failed suicide attempt, Violet Holt is left in the company of her estranged grandmother and comatose grandfather at their seaside estate in Newport. While biding her time until her rescheduled rendezvous with Death, Violet stumbles across Jack instead. He has his own secrets for why he's in Newport, and in the process of figuring them out, Violet finds herself reconsidering her birthday plans."
